TO THE SECOND ASSEMBLY.

VOTERS.

The question as to who shall be elected to the legislature from this city to-morrow is one of special importance. The coming legislature will be called upon to elect a United States senator, Mr.

Sawyer's term expiring next March. If the republicans carry the legislature, Mr.

Sawyer will be his own successor, but otherwise a democrat will be elected.

This is a matter over which all republicans should soberly and thoughtfully ponder. Can they afford for any personal reason or prejudice on whatever founded,

to either show an indifference in regard to their vote on this question, or to cast their votes for a democrat? The plainest duty that faces every republican at this time, is not only to vote but work for the straight republican ticket.

To show what desperate means the democracy is using to carry the legislature and thus elect a democratic United States senator, the Gazette reproduces a letter from Colonel J. H. Knight, manager of the democratic state central committee and a business partner of Postmaster General Vilas, who is a candidate for United States senator. Here is the letter:

MILWAUKEE, October 1, 1886.—J. K.

Wright, Marinette, Wis.—Dr. Wright,

Enclosed find check for $500. It means that we must have Holgate at any price.

Use to best advantage. If more is needed we are at once. Show this letter to no one but Holgate; then burn. Will send Bailey to-morrow. (Signed)

J. H. KNIGHT.

To show more clearly the force of the foregoing letter, it is only necessary to add that Wright is the postmaster at Marinette, Holgate is the democratic candidate for the state senate, and Balley to whom "help" is promised is the

THE WASHINGTON VIEW OF THE

HENRY GEORGE CAMPAIGN.

Leaders of Both Parties Discussing the Future Influence of the Movement—

Will It Be the Nucleus of the Long-

Looked-For New Party?—Late Doings

in the Political Field.

CHICAGO, Nov. 1.—The Herald's Washington City telegraph has the following: "There is no room to doubt that leaders of both political parties, more especially in administration quarters, regard with considerable solicitude, if not apprehension, the results of the municipal election in New York, in so far as it may demonstrate the capacity, present and future, of the various elements of the majority, to combine and maintain an organized and effective political action. It is whether the sloughing-off process will most affect the Democratic or the Republican party, and to what probable extent the presidential canvass to ensue in 1888 will be affected by the political revolution which the causality of Mr. George is alleged to pre-suppose.

The advent of Mr. George as a factor in political issues is regarded as breeding solid policy lines and manifesting the steady quality of his character and convictions. Should he be elected he will draw around him a large following of political malcontents of both parties, in addition to the trade union, craft and labor, and general agitators. It should be noted that he is not a reformer. It should be noted that he is not a reformer. It

NOTE FOR NOWLAN.

There is not one substantial reason why any republican in Janesville should not heartily support Mr. Nowlan for the assembly. Not a single claim to unfitness can be supported against him. He is not only an intelligent and a practical business man, but he is an energetic worker, has excellent judgment, and will well care for the interests of the Second district.

These are facts that should be carefully considered by every republican voter in the district; and further that every vote cast for a republican assemblyman is a vote for a republican United States senator. With this important fact confronting every republican voter it is difficult to understand how he can do this duty well without making a special effort to elect Mr. Nowlan.

RESULTS.

—Vote the republican ticket to-morrow.

—Regular meeting night of the common council.

—The water commissioners will hold a weekly meeting this evening.

—Crystal Temple of Honor No. 32 will hold a regular meeting this evening, at which a full attendance of members is desired.

—With a full republican vote the entire republican ticket in this assembly district will be elected. The result is, therefore, with the republicans.

—Let every republican make it a point to-morrow, to appear at the polls and vote the straight republican ticket, from Governor Strait down to the bottom.

—Beware of bogus tickets at the polls to-morrow. By means of these bogus tickets, which have been distributed throughout the county, the democrats hope to secure the election of some of their candidates.

—Voters will do well to-morrow to carefully examine their ticket before voting. The democrats have circulated many republican tickets with republican candidates omitted and democrats substituted. Beware of them.

—Yesterday was a very quiet Sunday considering the great political agitation now going on. While there were a great many people on the streets engaged in arguments, there was no disturbance anywhere that required police interference, and no arrests are reported.

—The case of the state against George Williams, of Beloit, charged with an assault to do great bodily harm, came on for trial this forenoon in the municipal court. The defendant pleaded guilty to a simple assault which was accepted, and a fine of seventy-five dollars and costs amounting to $17.10, imposed and paid.

—In voting to-morrow for state senator and member of the assembly, remember that your vote may decide the political complexion of the next legislature. Indirectly, your vote is a vote for United States senator, and that senator may decide the political standing of the United States senate. Vote for the republican nominees.

—Don't let a stormy day keep you away from the polls. Democratic postmasters have been instructed by orders from Washington to see that no democratic vote is lost, hoping thereby to gain a victory in Wisconsin, and secure the election of Postmaster-General Vilas to the United States senate. Republicans must be on the alert to counteract this little game.

—Dr. J. H. Warner has just returned from New York and this morning started for Albany to be present at the polls to-morrow, and use his influence for the success of the republican ticket. He says that the election in Wisconsin to-morrow is interesting men of all parties throughout the east and is recognized as the most important state election since the war.

—A large number of our citizens went up to the three mile creek yesterday to see the railway camps and inspect the high bridge which spans the creek. The track is laid from Evansville to this bridge and construction trains are making regular trips to that point. The building of the cut off is progressing very rapidly, and the entire line will be ready for the rails in a very short time.

—The funeral services of Gertrude May Cole were held at the home in the third ward yesterday afternoon. Rev. Dr. Hodge, of the Baptist church, officiating. The song service was rendered by Mrs. Dudley, Mrs. Dr. Clark and Messrs. Yankirk and Clark, with Mrs. Clark at the organ. The bearers were six young men from the Sabbath school: James Lugg, George Dutton, John Groesbeck, George Hays, Fred Ormsby and George Hay. The floral offerings were profuse and very beautiful, and the service was very impressive. While death in this instance was not unexpected, the loneliness will be none the less keenly felt, and the home will be remembered by many sympathizing friends.

—Remedy's Petrolene Plaster. If you once give it a trial you will never be without the above valuable article. It is unquestionably superior to any other plaster. Sold by druggists and Prentice & Evenson, agents.

—Fanny Loyalty. The dissatisfied republicans in the third district will do well to remember that Mr. Tarrant and Mr. Brace, the defeated candidates in the convention that nominated Mr. Bartholom, both propose to vote the straight republican ticket. Loyalty to the party is consistent and should be practiced by every republican voter.

—"Do you know" that "Pedaurea corn plasters" will cure your corns? Prentice & Evenson, agents.

The Height of Nowlan.

The democratic howl against Mr. Nowlan, the republican candidate for assemblyman in the Second district, is the height of nonsense and is used simply because Mr. Nowlan's record is clean, and his opponents are willing to grasp at any kind of a straw. The fact that he received the nomination at the hands of his party, in the regular convention, is all the argument needed by good loyal republicans who are interested in the success of their party. As regards Mr. Nowlan's deal with the state, any man of ordinary sense knows that a seat in the legislature places him at a disadvantage and lessens his chances of winning his case.

Mr. Nowlan has ever shown himself worthy of public confidence and has filled with credit to himself and honor to his constituency, many places of trust. He is entitled to the vote of his party at the polls to-morrow. Let the democratic howl, Nowlan's reputation and record will stand the test. Turn out and vote the straight republican ticket.

It is never too late to mend a sprained ankle, a swollen throat, a stiff neck, or any other ailment, if you but use that ever-ready remedy, Salvation Oil, the greatest cure on earth for pain. Price 25 cents.

The Election Returns.

Lapping's hall will be open to-morrow evening for the purpose of accommodating the people who wish to hear the election returns. The committee, republican and democratic, have made all the arrangements. Everybody is invited to attend. Admission only ten cents.

A Gift for All.

In order to give all a chance to test it, and thus be convinced of its wonderful curative power, Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, will be, for a limited time, given away. This offer is not only liberal, but it is a great remedy. All who suffer from Coughs, Colds, Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis or any affection of the throat, chest, or lungs, are especially requested to call at Frank Shaver & Co's drug store, and get a trial bottle free, large bottles 51.

The Weather.

At seven o'clock yesterday morning the thermometer indicated 32 degrees above zero. Clear with west wind.

At 1 p. m. the register was 71 degrees above zero. Clear with west wind. For the corresponding hours last year the register was 37 and 41 degrees above zero. At seven o'clock this morning the thermometer indicated 41 degrees above zero. Partly cloudy with south wind. At one o'clock p. m. the register was 67 degrees above zero. Partly cloudy with south wind. For the corresponding hours one year ago the register was 35 and 39 degrees above zero.

At Albany.

—B. J. McAtee will commence Monday the erection of a substantial brick store, 25x100 feet, on the corner of Third and South streets, at J. T. Little's building.

—Thomas Mitchell is pushing work vigorously on new improvements, corner Summit and Main streets, frame of residence nearly located.

—The Albany abattoir factory closed for the season. Saturday, Oct. 30. Stock mostly disposed of. The average sales for the season are quite satisfactory to the patrons. It is to be hoped that Mr. Devoresau will be continued as manager next year.

—The Steamer Mifflin goes into winter quarters this week. The opening season has been all that could be expected.

—Halloween did not pass without an incident to the memory of yore. Old times, of hobgoblins, fairies and merry sprites, which was firmly believed did come from fairy land on this anniversary. Gates were not only thrown open, but the doors were open to the street. Superstition leaves a trace after centuries of enlightenment and civilization. Santa Claus comes next with the little of belief.

—Dr. W. L. Wilder and family have removed to Plattville, Wis.

—Mrs. Beckert, wife of Fred Beckert, died on Wednesday evening last, after a brief illness, from confinement. Appropriate services were held at the home at an early hour on Friday morning. Her remains were conveyed to the western part of the county for interment. She leaves a young baby to the tender care of a bereaved husband and three children.

—One by one the old settlers adjacent to Albany are laying aside the plow, reaper to other hands and quietly move to town. They were solid farmers, and they will make good citizens of the city. The ladies are welcome there to hospitable homes in our midst.

—Albany has three good church edifices and many a saloon. What shall the harvest be?

—Mrs. S. S. Hills has retired from the Hills House, and is henceforth no longer landlady. The family are domiciled in the old house on Main street. Mr. Hill will now bend his energies exclusively to the production and the building of the "Vindicator."

—Rev. Mr. Eaton, of Madison, occupied the M. E. pulpit Sunday morning. He is announced to talk for prohibition at the M. E. church, Monday night. The church is a fine one, and could not be admitted for the reason that it had a political bearing, but prohibition is quite another thing, especially when a majority of the board of directors pull that way.
